Family stories:

My great-grandfather, Isaac Newton Gard Smock was the son of George Gard Smock and Catherine Anna Schenck of Warren County, Ohio. There was a large family of children. When Isaac was a child, he fell out of a tree and when the doctor came to set his leg he did not fix it correctly and it was 2 inches shorter than the other leg. This made it hard to be a farmer so her went to school and became a school teacher. He moved to Barthlomew County and taught school and married a local girl, Anna Maria Schenck, who was a great-neice of his mother. In later years, he was able to have a corrected boot which helped him to farm and raise a family of four girls and one son.

The Smock family came to America from Holland where they inherited land on Staten Island. They lived there for many years until the English moved into New York and then they moved to New Jersey, Monmouth County and Somerset County. Many of the beginning families stayed there. The youngest son inherited the family land and the parents but land in Ohio and other states was purchased for some of the other children.

Catharine Schenck Smock was a sister of Tunis Schencks father (~~I do not have his name~~ Chrygonyonce(sp?) Schenck), Her son J.N.G. Smock Married Anna Maria — daughter of Tunis.

Chrygonyonce Schenck = father of Tunis is in Grandma Smocks handwriting when she was quite old and is hard to read. (Uncle Joe Mount always said it was Chyronce — I believe it was a Holland Dutch way of spelling Charles.

Hope this gives you a little more information. If you have more than this about J.N.G's brothers and sisters I'd be glad to get it.

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

Records in office of Adjutant General in Trenton, New Jersey, show that John Schenck was a commissioned officer during the Revolutionary War.

Ellis' History of Monmouth County, N. J., page 672, regarding Schenck family:

John, son of Garret, 2nd, was born August 28,1745, and died on his 89th birthday.----------He lived next his father's farm, carried on his farming, a saw-mill and fulling mill. While yet a young man the war of the Revolution came on and he ardently embraced the cause. Became Captain of Militia and was a bold and enterprising officer.-------------At one time when home from the army, a company of forty refugees came to Pleasant Valley from Sandy Hook, and Capt. John Schenck took 21 men, 19 horses and 5 sleighs.------Fifteen hundred refugees came (June, 1781) burning everything as they came. Capt. Schenck's company attacked them and brought off some as prisoners of war. During the fight his wife and her three-weeks' old babe, Delafayette, had to retire to the cellar for safety from the bullets.---------He was taken prisoner and placed on the prison ship, but escaped and lived to be the successful person to capture and bring to the Governor at Princeton, from Gravesend, Long Island, Major Moncriff, Theophilis Bancho, four slaves, and the Mayor and 'Tormentor General' David Matthews, who had inflicted on the prisoners the most unheard-of cruelties. Capt. Schenck was paid 48 pounds, 6 pence for expenses for 12 men, fifty miles.

trade, when his employer broke up business. He again returned to the farm, afterwards was in Middletown in the lumber business, and conducted a planing-mill where Mr. Tytus's paper-mill now stands. He also owns a fine farm two miles north of Middletown, on the Germantown Pike, and a large steam saw-mill, one hundred and forty feet long and forty feet wide, three stories high. The first story is built of stone. The mill is of forty-five horse power capacity. There is also a turning-lathe and planer. It is situated where there is business all of the time. He was married on the 14th of September, 1851, to Sarah D. Talbert, who was born in North Carolina in 1825. She is the daughter of William Talbert, who died March 9, 1867, and Willmett Lamb, who died December 7, 1837. The father came in 1837, but the mother never came. She lived and died in Preble County. Mr. Robison has been a member of the New School Baptist Church for about twenty years. His wife is a member of the Protestant Methodist Church, and has a large acquaintance and circle of friends.

Abraham Simpson, retired farmer, was born in Middlesex County, New Jersey, on the fifth of September, 1795. His parents were Thomas Simpson and Margaret Griggs. He came to this country from New Jersey in 1818. His father had left home, in 1799, to come to this region on horseback, by the way of Fort Pitt, and from that place, now known as Pittsburg, started on alone. The man who kept the tavern there persuaded him to trade his horse for a skiff and come down the river, as it was considered very dangerous to travel any other way. So he, and a companion he met in that place, left together, having plenty of provisions, and were never heard of afterwards. Abraham was reared on a farm until he had attained sufficient age to be put as an apprentice to the blacksmith's trade, where he stayed four years. After completing his time he worked for a little while, but could get no steady employment, and determined to go West to Ohio. With his brother-in-law, Seth Dye, who had a wife and one small child, about a year old, they left, and were six weeks and four days on the road. The highways were very muddy, there being no turnpikes then; but they had a good team of horses, and got through with only one accident. They overtook an Irishman and his family who had four horses to his wagon, and Mrs. Dye was persuaded to get in their wagon, as there was a place to lie down. She had not gone far before they upset, breaking three of her ribs. All thought the child was killed, but it was not, and in fact had scarcely received any injury.

After getting to Middletown Mr. Simpson worked at his trade, blacksmithing, for about twenty years, his shop being the only one in the town. He then sold out and bought a farm of one hundred and thirty acres. He has added to it until it now comprises one hundred and ninety-six. It is one of the best improved farms between Middletown and Lebanon. He has been a member of the Presbyterian Church for about fifty years, his wife joining at the same time. Nearly all his children are members also. He was married on the 15th of May, 1823, in Warren County, five miles west of Lebanon, to Euphemia Longstreet, born in Middlesex County, New Jersey, in 1799, on the 9th of January. Her parents were Aaron Longstreet, who died June 7, 1858, and Mary Higgins, who died March 20, 1862. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson have had nine children.

Martin Sheets was born in Miami County, Ohio, February 3, 1824. His father, David Sheets, died January 30, 1836, and Sarah Fouts, his mother, died October 28, 1862. He was married November 28, 1848, in Hamilton, to Elizabeth J. Matson, whose parents were Enoch Matson and Mary Direly. She was born in this county, September 20, 1824, and her father died in March, 1847, and her mother, May 5, 1855. They came to the county in 1807, but the grandfather came in 1800. His name was Frederick Fouts. He was drafted during the War of 1812, but instead of going out hired a substitute, for whom he paid eighty dollars. Mr. Sheets stayed on the farm until the age of twenty was attained, when he entered a blacksmith's shop as an apprentice, serving two years. Then he labored as a journeyman for a year and half, starting out for himself September 20, 1847, in the village of Amanda, and has been working at the business ever since, with the exception of eight months he spent in Illinois in farming, in 1862, then returning to his old home. He is a member of the Masonic order, and has been so since 1868, holding the office of junior warden and trustee for a good many years. He has also been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church since 1853, his wife also joining at the same time. Their children are William Alexander, born February 22, 1850; David H., August 10, 1852; Charles M. and Henry B., twins, born on the 15th of May, 1856, and dying the same day; Eddie, February 2, 1862, dying January 7, 1863; and two infants, one born on the 25th of December, 1854, and the other on the 1st of April, 1864, both dying on the day of their birth. Mr. Sheets was supervisor in 1851. A brother, Robert Sheets, was in the army as a private, and died of small-pox at Paducah.

Peter P. Schenck, an old and esteemed farmer of Madison Township, was born in Somerset County, New Jersey, on the 3d of May, 1801. He is the son of Garret G. Schenck, who was born April 30, 1758, and died in 1839, and Jane Van Kirk, born September 8, 1769, and dying in 1836. They were both born in Monmouth County, in that State. The father was in the Revolutionary War for four or five years. Peter P. Schenck's birth-place was about forty miles from New York City. It was sold when he was about six years of age, his parents then buying a farm in Monmouth County, within one mile of the lower bay of New York, and six miles from Sandy Hook, where they lived until 1816. That farm was then sold, and his father came to Ohio. Peter was then fifteen years of age. They arrived at Franklin, Warren County, on the 22d of June, 1815, the father buying a farm within two miles of that place.

The present Mr. Schenck lived there until he married Catherine Johnson in 1821, and in 1822 moved to Butler County, having lived here ever since, or sixty years. They had five children, one of whom only is living, his youngest, who is forty-six years of age, now living at Peoria, Illinois. Their births and deaths are as follows: Johnson, born December 12, 1821, died September 12, 1839; Mary Ann, born February 25, 1823, died July 21, 1854; William, born March 24, 1826, died January 26, 1875; Garrett, born July 8, 1830, died July 24, 1830; Henry, born December 14, 1835. Mrs. Schenck's father, John Johnson, came to Ohio in 1810, and died in 1850; and Polly Sutphin, her mother, was orn in Monmouth County, New Jersey. Mrs. Schenck died in 1858, and in 1868 Mr. Schenck married Mrs. Elizabeth Heffner, whose maiden name was Morningstar. He was township trustee for about twelve years. His occupation has been that of a farmer.

William J. Schenck, son of B. G. Schenck and Phœbe J. DuBois, was born in Warren County, Ohio, November 25, 1854. He began the livery business in Middletown in 1879, and has done a good trade. He has a large stock both of horses and carriages. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church, and has been so for ten years. He was the secretary of its Sunday-school for three years. He is the grandson of a soldier of the Revolutionary War, William Schenck. His brother, A. D. Schenck, was in active service for three years. In 1864 he went to West Point, to school, graduating in 1868, and has been in the service ever since. He has been to California, Mexico, and Texas.

Michael Simpson was born in York County, Pennsylvania, July 24, 1820, being the son of Arthur Simpson and Catherine Butcher. He was raised on a farm, and at the age of fifteen went to Weston, Lewis County, West Virginia, and learned the tailor's trade. He served four years at this, and afterward engaged in buying and selling grain and shipping it to Cincinnati. About ten years ago he came to Middletown, and opened a merchant tailoring establishment. He has been a member of the Methodist Church for twenty-eight years, his wife joining the Church at the same ime. Her maiden name was Ellen Warner. She was orn in Lewis County, West Virginia, June 13, 1822, nd was the daughter of John Warner and Rachel Rush, who came to this county in 1820. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson were married April 25, 1847. They have had en children. Theodore C. was born February 27, 1848; Frances C., July 23, 1850; Henry A., September 22, 1853; Joseph H., February 23, 1855; John R., January 24, 1859; Carrie E., May 18, 1861; Mamie L., November 14, 1862; Ida May, August 19, 1864; Susie R., July 24, 1868; Jean W., October 14, 1872. Mr. Simpson was a justice of the peace for three years, being elected in 1853. His son enlisted in 1862, and was captured and sent to Andersonville Prison for about four months, coming very near dying. He enlisted in the Fifty-third Ohio Regiment. Of Mr. Simpson's children Frances C. has received a very fine education, and for the last twelve years has been teaching school in Jeffersonville. Henry A. Simpson is a cutter in a large tailoring establishment in Columbus, Ohio. John R. is the assistant cutter in the Middletown establishment. Theodore C. Simpson is book-keeper and paymaster in a large tobacco establishment.

William Sebald was born in Bavaria, Germany, December 10, 1830. His parents are Casper Sebald and Margaret Schalk, the mother coming to this county with William in 1854. He was married in Hamilton, on the 29th of September, 1857, to Mary Dilg, daughter of Henry Dilg and Louisa Schwab, who was born in Hamilton June 12, 1841. Her parents came here in 1836. Mr. and Mrs. Sebald have had ten children. The first was an infant, dying shortly after its birth, in 1858. Louisa M. Keller was born in May, 1860; Minnie A., June 10, 1861; George H., November 15, 1864; Edward C., August 11, 1866; William J., April 15, 1869; Charles, September 2, 1871; Frank A., January 26, 1874; Mamie A., April 9, 1876, and Gustavus A., January 28, 1879. Frank A. died April 15, 1875. Mr. Sebald learned carriage painting and trimming in Bavaria, and after coming to this county he worked at his trade for about five years, when he built a brewery in Middletown, where he carried on the brewing business until his death, which occurred December 10, 1880, his wife carrying on the business. He was a member of the town council and school board about five years.

Daniel C. Snyder was born in Madison Township, May 3, 1837. His parents were Daniel and Catherine Ann Snyder. He is a farmer. He was married December 10, 1857, to Mary Jane Sinkey, daughter of John Sinkey and Louisa A. Weikel. She was born in Amanda, Lemon Township, April 15, 1838. They have had five children. Sarah C. Snyder was born January 1, 1859; John M. Snyder, November 22, 1862; Daniel S. Snyder, November 21, 1866; Clara L. Snyder, December 13, 1871, and William M. Snyder, April 21, 1875. Daniel S. and William M. are dead.

Joseph Sutphin was born in Lemon Township, December 24, 1817. His parents, John Sutphin and Jane Potter, were of the earliest families in the neighborhood. His grandfather, Abraham Sutphin, was in the Revolutionary War, and his father, John Sutphin, in the War of 1812. Moses Potter settled in Lemon Township in 1795, and followed the occupation of a farmer. He was married on the 14th of April, 1840, at Piqua, to Caroline Johnston, born in that town, in 1819. PLATE 7

Cornell—Schenck House
in Highland Park, East New York

This house is believed to have been built about 1760 by Isaac Cornell or his father but passed by inheritance into the Schenck family and was inhabited by descendants until sold to the city in 1906. Stone houses were seldom erected in Kings County; this is the only existing example of the late eighteenth century on Long Island. The stonework has been plastered and whitewashed; the gable is clap-boarded. Note the four chimneys, more typical of the Bergen County stone houses than of the Kings County shingled houses. The beautiful sweep of the roofline has not been broken by the addition of modern dormers. The photograph shows the house in the rural surroundings of the mid-nineteenth century. It is reproduced by courtesy of Mrs. Sarah Woodson.

The home land of Isaac Cornell in the New Lots (the north half of Lots No. 17 and No. 18), was deeded on Sept. 2, 1808 by Teunis Schenk and his wife Gitty Cornell to Coert Van Brunt and reconveyed to them the next day, the transfer stating that this farm of 34 acres on the Brooklyn-Jamaica road belonged to Isaac Cornell, who failed to make a will in favor of his sole heir Gitty.

Judge Teunis[4] Schenk, b. Feb. 15, 1767, was the son of Teunis[3] Schenk of Bushwick, who was the grandson of Johannis[1] Schenk, the progenitor of the family in Bushwick (see plate 16). On December 18, 1794 he married Gertrude or Gitty Cornell, b. March 5, 1778, d. Nov. 20, 1860, and had many children: John of Flatbush, Catharine, Ann, Isaac of New Lots, Peter, a bachelor, Maria, Alletta Jane, Eliza, Gilliam of New Lots, and Cornelia. The judge lived in his father-in-law's house at New Lots from the time of his marriage until his death on Dec. 29, 1842. On the death of his father-in-law 1804-1808, the judge inherited a great deal of Cornell property in New Lots, including various scattered lots and a large tract on the north side of the road from Jamaica to the Brooklyn Ferry extending into Queens County. He sold some of this property but deeded the major part to his sons Isaac and Peter in 1837. Peter never married. Isaac C.[5] Schenck, b. Jan. 17, 1802, married Catharine, daughter of Peter Meserole, and had several children including John C.[6] Schenck, who lived in this family homestead at East New York (formerly New Lots), and finally sold it in 1906 to the City of Brooklyn for a park.

The main house was probably built about 1760 by Isaac Cornell or his father. It was partially rebuilt and remodelled in 1792 by Isaac Cornell and in 1812 by Judge Teunis Schenk. It is of stone, covered with a thick coat of whitewash, and has a steep gambrel roof unmarred by dormers. It is two rooms deep and has four chimneys. The small frame wing is of later date, probably built in 1812. The house stands opposite Ashford Street on the north side of Jamaica Avenue in Highland Park. It nestles below the hills, which protect it from northerly winds.

House of John Covert

1410 Flushing Avenue, Bushwick

PLATE 8

It is possible that this house was not built until immediately after the Revolution, when the Coverts obtained possession of the land. On April 22, 1709 Paulus Van Ende bought a one hundred acre plantation in the new lots of Bushwick, which eventually came into the possession of his granddaughter Jannetje Van Ende and her husband Moses Beegel. Their house is mentioned in the Bushwick-Newtown boundary settlement of 1769, and stands to this day adjoining the Covert house to the north (plate 22). On April 29, 1786 (deed recorded Nov. 3, 1866) Moses Beadel

Garret Schenck was an original member and an elder of the Church of Freehold, organized in 1709, and a member of the Provincial Assembly of New Jersey. He was a prosperous farmer and owned many large tracts of land, including property and a wharf at the present Keyport, which he gave and willed to his children. In his will of 1739 he called himself a gentleman of Middletown, mentioned his wife Neeltje, his five sons, Roelof (of Marlborough Twp.), Garret (of Holmdel Twp.), Koert (of Marlborough Twp.), John (of Penns Neck) and Albert (of Penns Neck), his five daughters, Mary, Altie, Neeltie, Rachel, and Margaret, and his deceased daughter Anne. Among other property, he left to his son Garret his home plantation "on condition that he allows his Mother the use of the two westernmost rooms of the Dwelling house below, with convenient furniture to furnish the same as his Mother shall think fit." This son Garret G.^{3} Schenck, b. Nov. 2, 1712, d. intestate Aug. 20, 1757 aged 44 years, married about 1737 Jannetje, daughter of William Van Couwenhoven of Flatlands, b. Oct. 6, 1714, d. on the homestead farm Feb. 14, 1792. They are said to have had four sons and six daughters. One of these was Garret G.^{4} Schenck II, b. 1743, d. Sept. 29, 1797 aged 53 years, 11 mos., and 5 days, married Sarah Covenhoven, b. July 23, 1744, d. Nov. 16, 1805, daughter of Rulif C.^{5} Covenhoven, who had inherited his father Cornelius' farm nearby (plate 121). Garret G. Schenck II may have come into possession of the homestead after the death of his mother in 1792.

The house passed by inheritance into the Rappleye family through Jane Schenck, b. March 24, 1767, d. March 23, 1850 aged 82 yrs., 11 mos., and 30 days. She was a granddaughter of Garret G.^{3} Schenck and probably a daughter of Garret G. Schenck II. Jane married Garret^{5} Smock, b. Aug. 4, 1765 on the Smock homestead farm southeast of Holmdel village, d. March 30, 1856 aged 90 yrs., 7 mos., and 26 days, whose greatgrandfather Johannes Hendrickse^{2} Smock settled in Monmouth County in 1712. Garret and Jane (Schenck) Smock lived at Pleasant Valley, probably in her family homestead; they were buried with her ancestors in the family cemetery at Pleasant Valley, rather than with his ancestors on his paternal farm. Garret and Jane had two daughters, Sarah^{6} Smock who married George Smock, and Elizabeth^{6} Smock who married George Rappleye, b. 1794, d. April 25, 1869 aged 75 years, 3 mos., 18 days. Theodore Rappleye was the owner of the farm in 1873, Thomas Thorne in 1889, Theodore R. Thorne in 1901, and the present owner is J. M. Thorne.

The house today is the result of several successive builders. The original unit is the small, narrow, stone portion, built in 1692 by Stephen Court Van Voorhees or in 1696 by Garret R. Schenck. As Garret Schenck left the use of the two westernmost rooms to his wife in his will of 1739, it was undoubtedly he who deepened the

as well as the island; the same lands passed to the latter's son Capt. John^{3} Schenck. At his death his heirs sold most of the property to Joris Martense on April 15, 1784, but this particular woodland plottage was not included in the sale; the land of Martin Schenck is mentioned in the deed of sale as the west boundary of the upland.

Martin^{4} Schenck was the only son of Capt. John Schenck and his wife Femmetje Hegeman, whom he had married in 1728, and was born after this date in the Mill Island home. Martin's wife Sarah is named in the deed of 1784. They undoubtedly built this house about the time of their marriage. We next find mention of it in a sale of Feb. 22, 1809, when the 15 acre property was sold by several members of the Van Sinderen family (Catalina, John, Hotso, and Jane). As other members of this family had joined with the heirs of Capt. John Schenck in selling the Mill Island property, it is probable that these Van Sinderens were related to Martin Schenck (possibly they were grandchildren of his sister?). Hendrick J. Lott bought the house in 1809 and conveyed it in 1814 to his young son Johannes H. Lott, who sold it in 1829. It is improbable that the Lotts ever resided here, as Hendrick had built his mansion in southern Flatlands only a few years before (plate 11).

On April 28, 1829 Johannes Lott sold to John Williamson the house and 7 acres which adjoined his lands. On May 1, 1883 the executors of John Williamson and Maria Williamson deeded the house and 14 acres to Garret Williamson, who was no doubt their son. Whether or not John Williamson dwelt here, we know it was occupied for many years by Garret Williamson, who was about eighty years of age when he died without issue about 1915.

The house is in Flatlands, east of the old village. The property was bounded on the west and on the south by the old Road to the Mill (Jan Martense Schenck's mill and house on Mill Island). It is said that the house does not stand on its original site; it was probably moved a short distance when the streets were cut through in the 1890s. It is now on East 53rd Street between Avenues M and N, nearer the latter. Since the photograph was taken in 1925, the house has been painted a violet brown which rather subdues its character, but otherwise it is unchanged.

Mespat Kills (now Newtown Creek) empties into the East River and from early times has been the division line between the Dutch settlement of Bushwick in Kings County and the English settlement of Mespat, later called Newtown, in Queens County. 176. Dominicus^{5} Covenhoven was born in Freehold, N.J. In the records of the Freehold-Middletown Dutch Church there is a baptism, under date of June 7, 1724, of an unnamed child of John and Jacoba Covenhoven, and most researchers believe this entry applies to Dominicus. During the Revolutionary War he served as a Private in Capt. Robert Nixon's Troop of Light Horse, Middlesex County Militia. He was killed by lightning and his funeral held on June 28, 1778, the day of the Battle of Monmouth. In his will, dated Apr. 18, 1778 and proved June 23, 1778, Dominicus Covenhoven of Windsor Township, yeoman, mentioned his wife Mary and five sons, John, William, Garret, Levi, and Peter. The executors were his wife and sons John and William, and it was witnessed by Moses Groom, Elisha Cook, and William Slayback (NJA:34:111).

Through an oversight, this entry was omitted in its proper sequence (Rec. v.71, p.275) but is introduced at this point to show the involved family relationships. Both Gerrit and his wife had Kouwenhoven mothers; a brother and three sisters of Gerrit married Kouwenhoven cousins and five of his 12 children married Kouwenhovens, four of whom were brothers and sisters.

315. i. (prob.) Sarah^{6} b. abt. 1720; d. in 1812. No record of birth or baptism for her or her brother, Gerrit, has been found but they were probably b. in Flatbush (where the family lived before moving to Monmouth County, New Jersey), where the Dutch Church Baptisms are missing from 1710 to 1721, inclusive. She was probably named for her maternal grandmother, Sarah Luyster, and one of her own daughters named Sarah b. May 21, 1758, mar. Hendrick Smock. In a Smock Bible record, after the date of death of Sarah Smock, Mar. 25, 1828, the following notation appears: "Sarah Lane, daughter of Aaron Lane and Sarah Cowenhoven, m. Nov. 8, 1780, her cousin Hendrick Smock who was a captain in the Revolutionary War and also a member of N.J. Provincial Assembly." As we know from other published records that Col. John Smock mar. Elizabeth Cowenhoven, a daughter of Joris and Altje, then Sarah must have been her sister (NJMis:2:316). The statement in Early Dutch Settlers of Monmouth County, page 125, that Catherine Schenck had a total of six children by both marriages, appears to be in error. As shown above, the baptisms of six Covenhoven children have been found while her first husband Simon De Hart, in his will, dated Brooklyn, N.Y., Mar. 5, 1747 and proved May 9, 1747, mentioned his son Simon and his dauther Geesje (WNYHS:4:116). Also, in the will of Simon, Jr., dated Brooklyn Sept. 26, 1769 and proved Oct. 10, 1769, he mentioned "Jacob, John, and Roelof Cowenhoven, my half brothers, and Mary Cowenhoven my half sister" (Ibid:7:280–81). Apparently, the two other Covenhoven children, Sarah and Antje, died prior to 1769.

166. John^5 Covenhoven was baptized July 15, 1722, in Freehold-Middletown Dutch Church. On Nov. 5, 1750 (NJA:22:76), he married Mary Van Doren who was baptized Mar. 31, 1731, in Marlboro, N.J., a daughter of Arie & Antje (Schenck) Van Doren. In his will, dated Feb. 1, 1792 and proved June 8, 1792, John Covenhoven, yeoman of Middletown, Monmouth County, N.J., mentioned his wife Mary; his son Jacob; and his daughters Nelly Lane, Sarah Smock, and Caty Lane. The executors were his brother-in-law Garret Hendrickson and a friend Jacob Covenhoven. It was witnessed by Simon Van Arsdale, Isaac Van Pelt, Cornelius Van Horn, Jacob Van Arsdale, John Schenck, Jr., and Peter Van Doren. The inventory of his estate amounted to £472:10:6 and was taken June 7, 1792, by John Stillwell and Isaac Covenhoven (NJA:37:91–92). The omission of the names of Arie, John, and the younger Antje leads to the belief that these children had predeceased their father leaving no issue.

176. Dominicus^5 Covenhoven was born in Freehold, N.J. In the records of the Freehold-Middletown Dutch Church there is a baptism, under date of June 7, 1724, of an unnamed child of John and Jacoba Covenhoven, and most researchers believe this entry applies to Dominicus. During the Revolutionary War he served as a Private in Capt. Robert Nixon's Troop of Light Horse, Middlesex County Militia. He was killed by lightning and his funeral held on June 28, 1778, the day of the Battle of Monmouth. In his will, dated Apr. 18, 1778 and proved June 23, 1778, Dominicus Covenhoven of Windsor Township, yeoman, mentioned his wife Mary and five sons, John, William, Garret, Levi, and Peter. The executors were his wife and sons John and William, and it was witnessed by Moses Groom, Elisha Cook, and William Slayback (NJA:34:111).

Through an oversight, this entry was omitted in its proper sequence (Rec. v.71, p.275) but is introduced at this point to show the involved family relationships. Both Gerrit and his wife had Kouwenhoven mothers; a brother and three sisters of Gerrit married Kouwenhoven cousins and five of his 12 children married Kouwenhovens, four of whom were brothers and sisters.

was omitted in its proper sequence (Rec. v.71, p.275)* the involved family relationships. Both Gerrit and r and three sisters of Gerrit married Kouwen- d Kouwenhovens, four of whom were brothers his parents, and no record of any children for them has been found; however, justification for placing Joris as their son was explained in detail in a previous article (Rec. v.71, p.157).* He resided in Brooklyn and on May 26, 1719, he married in the Dutch Church in Flatbush, Altje Luyster who was born there about 1695, a daughter of Cornelis Pieterse & Sarah Catharina (Nevius) Luyster (HSYB:1898, p.99; Nevius Gen. 1900, p.593).

Children: 7

315. i. (prob.) Sarah^6 b. abt. 1720; d. in 1812. No record of birth or baptism for her or her brother, Gerrit, has been found but they were probably b. in Flatbush (where the family lived before moving to Monmouth County, New Jersey), where the Dutch Church Baptisms are missing from 1710 to 1721, inclusive. She was probably named for her maternal grandmother, Sarah Luyster, and one of her own daughters named Sarah b. May 21, 1758, mar. Hendrick Smock. In a Smock Bible record, after the date of death of Sarah Smock, Mar. 25, 1828, the following notation appears: "Sarah Lane, daughter of Aaron Lane and Sarah Cowenhoven, m. Nov. 8, 1780, her cousin Hendrick Smock who was a captain in the Revolutionary War and also a member of N.J. Provincial Assembly." As we know from other published records that Col. John Smock mar. Elizabeth Cowenhoven, a daughter of Joris and Altje, then Sarah must have been her sister (NJMis:2:316). On May 17, 1743, she mar. in Middletown, N.J., Aaron Lane b. there abt. 1719; d. abt. 1805, a son of Matthias & Ann (Schenck) Lane. The statement in Early Dutch Settlers of Monmouth County, page 125, that Catherine Schenck had a total of six children by both marriages, appears to be in error. As shown above, the baptisms of six Covenhoven children have been found while her first husband Simon De Hart, in his will, dated Brooklyn, N.Y., Mar. 5, 1747 and proved May 9, 1747, mentioned his son Simon and his dauther Geesje (WNYHS:4:116). Also, in the will of Simon, Jr., dated Brooklyn Sept. 26, 1769 and proved Oct. 10, 1769, he mentioned "Jacob, John, and Roelof Cowenhoven, my half brothers, and Mary Cowenhoven my half sister" (Ibid:7:280–81). Apparently, the two other Covenhoven children, Sarah and Antje, died prior to 1769.

166. John^5 Covenhoven was baptized July 15, 1722, in Freehold-Middletown Dutch Church. On Nov. 5, 1750 (NJA:22:76), he married Mary Van Doren who was baptized Mar. 31, 1731, in Marlboro, N.J., a daughter of Arie & Antje (Schenck) Van Doren. In his will, dated Feb. 1, 1792 and proved June 8, 1792, John Covenhoven, yeoman of Middletown, Monmouth County, N.J., mentioned his wife Mary; his son Jacob; and his daughters Nelly Lane, Sarah Smock, and Caty Lane. The executors were his brother-in-law Garret Hendrickson and a friend Jacob Covenhoven. It was witnessed by Simon Van Arsdale, Isaac Van Pelt, Cornelius Van Horn, Jacob Van Arsdale, John Schenck, Jr., and Peter Van Doren. The inventory of his estate amounted to £472:10:6 and was taken June 7, 1792, by John Stillwell and Isaac Covenhoven (NJA:37:91–92). The omission of the names of Arie, John, and the younger Antje leads to the belief that these children had predeceased their father leaving no issue.

176. Dominicus^5 Covenhoven was born in Freehold, N.J. In the records of the Freehold-Middletown Dutch Church there is a baptism, under date of June 7, 1724, of an unnamed child of John and Jacoba Covenhoven, and most researchers believe this entry applies to Dominicus. During the Revolutionary War he served as a Private in Capt. Robert Nixon's Troop of Light Horse, Middlesex County Militia. He was killed by lightning and his funeral held on June 28, 1778, the day of the Battle of Monmouth. In his will, dated Apr. 18, 1778 and proved June 23, 1778, Dominicus Covenhoven of Windsor Township, yeoman, mentioned his wife Mary and five sons, John, William, Garret, Levi, and Peter. The executors were his wife and sons John and William, and it was witnessed by Moses Groom, Elisha Cook, and William Slayback (NJA:34:111).

Harriet Rosemary Brandenburg

89, of Indianapolis, passed away October 9, 2009, at St. Francis Hospital, Beech Grove.

Rosemary lived her entire life in Indianapolis. She would have celebrated her 90th birthday on November 11th. Rosemary was a 1939 graduate of Beech Grove High School and went to their reunions. She was a member of DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution), IOOF, and First Presbyterian Church of Southport. Rosemary volunteered at church rummage, as a Sunday school teacher, and at Crossroads. When her health deteriorated, she resided at Friendship Healthcare Center. Rosemary was often given woodcrafts at Crossroads and Friendship because she loved to paint. She has a zest for life and was a wonderful wife, mother, and aunt. Rosemary loved her family, friends, and working at home in her flowers.

Preceding her in death was her husband, Carl; sister-in-law, Eileen Lovell; parents, Rose and Harry Burns; brother, Kenneth Burns; and sister, Wilma Drake. Rosemary is survived by her daughter, Nancy (David) Sedam; sisters, Deloris Butsch and Margaret Smock; and many nieces and nephews in Indiana and Canada.

There will be no services per Rosemary's request. G. H. Herrmann Madison Avenue Funeral Home, 5141 Madison Avenue, is handling arrangements. The family wishes to thank St. Francis Beech Grove Hospital, Dr. Wilbur, Dr. Hurley, and the staff at Friendship Healthcare Center for their compassionate care of Rosemary. Memorial contributions may be made the Parkinson's Association. Online condolences may be shared with the family at: www.ghherrmann.com

LIVING WITH THE PAST IN OHIO

PHOTOGRAPHY BY JESSIE WALKER

"In 1959, when I first laid eyes on it, I thought this house was the ugliest thing I ever saw," said owner Joy Litten. The 120-year-old house, formerly the Baltimore House hotel near Verona, Ohio, had been in the Litten family before. In 1910, Mr. Litten's great-uncle purchased most of the structure and moved it down the street to its present location, leaving behind a stable, dance hall and saloon. "Shortly after my husband was born in a room upstairs, the place was sold, but Don and I bought it back right after we were married." Since then, all 10 rooms have been restored and furnished with treasures from the couple's antiques shop.

Above, left: The house, once a hotel, was moved to its present location in Verona, Ohio, in 1910. All around the house, lush gardens abound. Above, right: The Littens named their shop Baltimore House Antiques, in honor of the old hotel. Below, left: Old graniteware and a 1907 telephone make the back porch a nostalgia-lover's paradise. Slant-top coffee box cost $8 in 1962. Below, right: Papier-maché bunnies nest inside a tiny corner cupboard.

SCHENCK.—Tunis Schenck died at his residence, in Taylorsville, Ind., Dec. 31, 1880. He was born in Ohio, Jan. 21 1818, and was married to Ann Barklow in 1837, who now survives him. They joined the U. B. church in 1841, and he gave his life to the Lord as a devoted Christian. He moved to Bartholomew county, Indiana, in 1851, and joined the Christian church by letter, and lived a faithful member until his death at the age of 62. He leaves one son, one daughter, and a large circle of acquaintances to mourn his loss. As a member of the church he was always at his post; he did not talk so much as some, but always spoke by acts and deeds. He was deacon and treasurer, and as a result of his last year's labors, as a trustee he had our church-house refitted in good order. He was ever lending a helping hand to suffering humanity; he was one of the stockholders in our denominational Publishing House, and while he was not prejudiced against but fellowshiped with other denominations he was a dear lover of the doctrines of the old Christian church. May the Lord bless his aged companion, children and the good friends that so willingly rallied to his assistance. He suffered as a Christian, saying all was well with him. He died as he lived, a Christian. His funeral was attended by a very large congregation. Sermon by the writer.

Memoir.

John L. Barkalow son of Benjamin and Anna Barkalow was born Nov. 21, 1816; died May 16th, 1894. He was married to Jane Smock Nov., 17th, 1841. Of this union 5 children were born. The oldest son preceded him some 12 years ago. There are 20 grand-children and two great grand-children all with the exceptions of two were present at the funeral to mourn the loss of a good father and grand-father. He united with the Christian church when he was 28 years old and was baptised by Father Worley, one of the pioneer preachers of the Christian church.

Mr. Barkalow's daily walk spoke the life that he lived. He wished no eulogy. He was born and reared in the vicinity in which he died, and was greatly respected by all. A long and quiet life has closed, and as a shock of corn fully ripe and ready for its own use, so ripe and ready was our friend for the life which the great Father has in readiness for him. May the blessings of a kind Savior attend those whom he left to mourn.

The funeral was attended by the pastor of the Franklin Christian church, in the Presbyterian church at Carlisle, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Stephen, of Carlisle, and Dr. Paine, of Middletown, a life long friend and relative of the deceased. Peace to his memory!
